Ford's most exciting news for 1955 was the introduction of the 2-passenger Thunderbird! The new V-8 powered bird was introduced as a sporty competitor to the Vet, but included a full line of luxury options and based on a full-sized Ford. The first year Ford exceeded its projected sales for the T-bird with 16,155 produced.

Gil BaumgartnerCTCI Authenticity Chairman. The timing marks for all original 1955/56/57 Thunderbirds can be difficult to locate on un-restored or older restorations. In some cases the timing marks are either dirty or painted over and cannot be found. The illustration in the FoMoCo shop manual is for passenger cars only, which are located on the crank shaft dampener.

Timing Marks – Classic Thunderbird Club International

There's a bright white headliner overhead and the cargo bay is fully finished in matching red carpet with bright rub strips. The engine is a 272 cubic inch Y-block V8 that's been rebuilt and neatly detailed. There's bright Ford Red paint on the block, heads, and intake manifold, and a proper oil bath air cleaner up top.
