The rituals used in witchcraft are not just hocus pocus way of mystifying worship or mumbling meaningless words or sentences. The rituals are meant to evoke the hidden energies in nature and channel them to achieve positive and beneficial results. A witch (from old English "wicca male and Wicce female") is a practitioner of witchcraft.

'Spellbound' explores the concept of 'magical thinking', which describes how people in all ages and cultures have sought to connect with an unseen world of perceived power. This concept of magical thinking is used here to explore the history of medicine and the mind, focusing in particular on magic's secular expressions. Spells, magical objects and rituals are engines of hope, and hope is essential to physical and mental health, indeed to survival. These ideas are explored and conveyed through the extraordinary visual
