My Father, Myself. 06/17/2012 10:40 am ET Updated Dec 06, 2017 Some men learn by following a father's example, and some men learn by not following a father's example. I learned how to be a father by doing both. My dad had one name for all five of his children: "son." I'm not sure what he would have done if one of us had been a girl, although my ...

Myself is a reflexive pronoun.. It refers back to the subject of the sentence. Use myself instead of me when the object is the same person as the subject. In other words, use myself when you have already used I in a sentence, but you are still talking about yourself. Myself becomes the object.. I bought myself a new car!. I gave myself a manicure.. Don't worry. I'm not going to hurt myself.
